Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-45 and 68-78 in the reply filed on 1/12/2006 is acknowledged. New claims 93-114 were added in the reply.

Information Disclosure Statement

The IDSes filed 1/05, 11/05 and 12/05 have all been considered and placed of record. The initialed copies are attached herewith.

Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The disclosure should be carefully reviewed to ensure that any and all grammatical, idiomatic, and spelling or other minor errors are corrected.

Claim Objections

Claim 107 is objected to because of the following informalities: it depends on itself. For the purpose of examination, the Examiner assumes claim 107 depends on claim 106. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-45 and 93-114 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cheon (US 5,744,937). The reference discloses a battery charger for charging either a lithium-based battery or a MH-based battery wherein the controller monitors the nominal voltage of the battery and selects the appropriate charging pattern. The controller further monitors the temperature and a defective battery.

Regarding claims 1-45, it does not disclose the charger charges only lithium-based battery. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have only provided the charger with just lithium-based batteries since it has the programs to charge lithium-based batteries.

Regarding claims 93-114, the reference does not disclose the environment for which the battery is being used. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the battery in a power tool environment, since it has been held that omission of an element and its function in a combination where the remaining elements perform the same functions as before involves only routine skill in the art. In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 68-78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cheon (US 5,744,937). The reference discloses a battery charger for charging either a lithium-based battery or a MH-based battery wherein the controller monitors the nominal voltage of the battery and selects the appropriate charging pattern. The controller further monitors the temperature and a defective battery.

Conclusion
